Twos in TuTus – An introduction to dance for our youngest dancers, this half hour class is for two to three year olds.

CreativeDance – Designed for children ages 3 through Kindergarten year, this one-hour class focuses on ballet but incorporates tap. It is an outstanding program designed to teach body awareness, musicality, rhythm and the joy of moving to music.

Ballet • Pointe • Jazz • Tap • Contemporary – Ages 7 through adult, we offer different levels of classes for middle through high school students. Classes run from thirty minutes to one hour and are available for students with minimal training to the most experienced dancer.

Technique – Classes for both competition and non-competition dancers.

Hip Hop – For Kindergarten through high-schooler, a fun and funky dance class filled with styles such as popping, locking, and breaking.

For Boys Only – Designed especially for guys, this class teaches performance, technique, and aids athletic development.

Advanced Placement – An intensive program for dedicated dancers. Contemporary, lyrical and musical theatre dance are taught in addition to ballet, tap and jazz. Advanced Placement is by audition.
